 Where did Sam, Sr. fit?

Samuel Niman Sr. - lived - our father told me.
 on the corner where Bill Barnhart lived when we were in Mt. Morris.
 He was building a little house on a corner South of town (southwest of town - we turned right on the road South of town. We turned right instead of turning left to go to Harry Bakers. It was in the direction of the Pines State Park and Weller's woods) The rest of you probably remember it better than I did.
 It was the Windle place in 1881 - 2
 Dad said there were more houses out around the country then than when we were young.
